1. Definitions

For the purposes of this Music License Agreement (the “Agreement”), the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below. “Producer” refers to NO!SER, the original creator and rights holder of the musical composition titled “COLD” (the “Beat”). “Buyer” refers to Umut, the individual or entity acquiring rights under this Agreement. “License” refers to the specific usage rights identified as Basic Lease, as further described herein. “Effective Date” refers to 2026-07-25, the date on which this Agreement becomes binding upon both parties.

2. Grant of License

Subject to full payment of the agreed price of 15.00 USD, the Producer hereby grants to the Buyer a Basic Lease as described in this Agreement, permitting the Buyer to use the Beat for the creation of a new musical recording (the “New Work”) incorporating the Beat, and to exploit such New Work commercially in accordance with the terms, conditions, and limitations set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement grants non-exclusive rights, meaning the composition may continue to be licensed to other parties unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.

3. Copyright Ownership

The Producer retains full and exclusive ownership of the underlying musical composition, including all copyrights, master rights, and any associated intellectual property embedded in the Beat, except where an Exclusive license explicitly transfers such ownership as agreed in writing between the parties. This Agreement does not constitute a sale of the composition itself unless the License type is Exclusive and full transfer terms have been separately confirmed in writing by the Producer.

4. Rights Granted

Under this Basic Lease, the Buyer is granted the right to record, perform, broadcast, distribute, and monetize the New Work incorporating the Beat, including but not limited to digital streaming platforms, video platforms, radio broadcast, live performances, and physical media, subject to a distribution allowance of up to five thousand (5,000) total units or streams across all platforms combined. Any usage beyond the scope described herein requires a separate written agreement and additional compensation to the Producer.

5. Restrictions

The Buyer shall not resell, sublicense, redistribute, or transfer the Beat in its original, unaltered form to any third party under any circumstance. The Buyer shall not claim ownership of the underlying composition or register the Beat, in whole or in part, with any performing rights organization, content identification system, or copyright registry as an original work of the Buyer. The Beat may not be used in any material that is unlawful, defamatory, obscene, or that infringes upon the rights of any third party.

6. Credit Requirements

Where applicable and technically feasible, the Buyer agrees to credit the Producer in connection with the New Work using a reasonable and customary format, such as "Produced by NO!SER", within the metadata, video description, or liner notes accompanying the New Work. Failure to provide credit does not, by itself, constitute grounds for termination but may affect eligibility for future preferential licensing terms.

7. Delivery

Upon confirmation of payment, the Producer shall deliver the licensed audio files to the Buyer in the agreed digital format via electronic means, including but not limited to email, direct download link, or a designated file transfer platform. Delivery is deemed complete upon transmission of the files to the contact information provided by the Buyer at the time of purchase.

8. Refund Policy

Due to the digital and instantly deliverable nature of the licensed materials, all sales are considered final upon delivery. Refunds may be granted at the sole discretion of the Producer in cases of demonstrable technical failure, duplicate transactions, or delivery of materially defective files, provided that the Buyer notifies the Producer within seven (7) calendar days of the purchase date.

9. Termination

The Producer reserves the right to terminate this Agreement immediately, without refund, in the event that the Buyer breaches any material term of this Agreement, including but not limited to unauthorized redistribution of the Beat or use of the Beat in a manner that exceeds the scope of the granted License. Upon termination, all rights granted to the Buyer under this Agreement shall immediately cease, and the Buyer shall discontinue all further use, distribution, and monetization of the New Work.

10. Limitation of Liability

In no event shall NO!SER Productions or the Producer be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages arising out of or in connection with the use of the Beat or the New Work, including but not limited to loss of profits, loss of data, or business interruption, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. The total liability of the Producer under this Agreement shall not exceed the amount actually paid by the Buyer for the License.

11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement, together with the information presented on the accompanying license certificate, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings, or agreements, whether written or oral. Any amendment to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by both parties to be effective.

12. Privacy

NO!SER Productions collects and processes the Buyer's personal information, including name, email address, and country, solely for the purposes of generating this License, processing payment, and providing customer support. Such information shall not be sold or disclosed to unaffiliated third parties except where required by law or necessary to fulfill the obligations described in this Agreement.
